How to update your contact information

Once logged in you are able to view your contact details and other personal details using the ‘Personal Details’ tab or clicking ‘Update personal and contact details’ from the ‘Quick Navigations’ box on the dash board.

Here you can use the ‘edit’ button to amend details and change any information entered for the enquiry. This is then automatically updated on the record for the local volunteer to see meaning that they will always be using the most up to date information. When you have changed the details use the green ‘update’ button to save the change.

How to change your preferred unit

Once logged in you are able to view your current unit choices and the order of preference of these. This information is found by clicking on either the 'Preferred Units' tab in the blue bar or the 'Change current/preferred unit' option in the 'Quick Navigations' box on the Dashboard.

The screenshot shows a web interface with a blue navigation bar containing 'Dashboard', 'Personal Details', 'Preferred Units', 'Activity Logs', and 'Comments'. Below the navigation bar, the 'Preferred Units' section is titled 'Enquiry Units'. It is divided into two main sections: 'Assigned to' and 'Desired unit location 2'. Each section lists details for a specific unit, including Unit name, Town/city, County, Postcode, and Unit Meeting Days. At the bottom of the 'Desired unit location 2' section, there are two green buttons: 'Refer to this unit' and 'Refer to alternate unit'.

Assigned to
Unit	4th Northumberland Heath Rainbow Unit
Town/city	ERITH
County	Kent
Postcode	DA8 1HN
Unit Meeting Days	Monday Wednesday Thursday Friday Saturday Sunday

Desired unit location 2
Unit	1st Bamehurst Rainbow Unit
Town/city	Bexleyheath
County	Kent

Unit Meeting Days	Monday Tuesday Thursday Friday Saturday Sunday

You can only be assigned to one unit at any one time, this can be changed by using the green refer buttons. If the choice of unit that you would like to change to is already listed, then you can use the green 'refer to this unit' button and the enquiry will then be sent to this unit for them to contact you and discuss your enquiry to join within 21 days.

If the unit is not listed you can click the green 'refer to alternate unit' button at the bottom of the screen and you will then be given the map to choose a unit from.

You can change the postcode and/or section that you would like to join using the options at the top of the map. Once you have found the unit you would like to try, please click on 'choose this unit' and your details will then be sent to this unit for them to contact you and discuss your enquiry to join within 21 days.

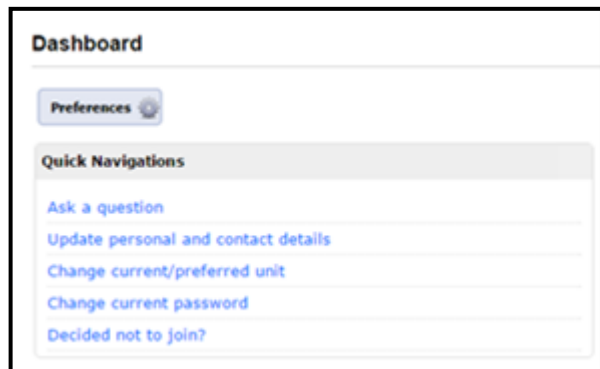

You can refer your enquiry after 21 days, however if you make a mistake you will be able to contact us and we can make the right change within the 21 day timeline.

The screenshot shows a web interface titled 'Refer to Alternative Preferred Unit'. It includes a form for entering a postcode (SW1W 0PT) and a 'Find address' button. Below the form, there are icons for 'Your Location', 'Rainbow', 'Brownies', 'Guides', and 'Senior Section'. A map of London is displayed, showing various units marked with yellow pins. A list of units is shown on the right side of the map, including '30th Westminster Brownie Unit', '9th Westminster Brownie Unit', '3rd Westminster Brownie Unit', '1st Evelina Children's Hospital Scout and Guide Unit', and '10th Chelsea Brownie Unit'. Each unit listing includes its distance, meeting days, and a 'Choose this Unit' link.

NB/ No matter how many times you refer your enquiry you keep the original registered date as when you first enquired to join Girlguiding. Each time you refer your enquiry you will receive an email confirming the change you have made.

How to contact the unit

You may need to contact the unit if you have lost the volunteer's contact information, haven't heard from the local volunteer within the 21 day period or you have another question about the local guiding area.

To ask the unit a question you will need to click on the 'Ask a Question' option in the Quick Navigation box. Here you can type your question or query and this will then send an email to the unit asking them to log in and make contact with you directly. You will see your question on both the 'Comment' tab in the blue bar and you will also see it in the 'latest comments' box on the dashboard.

You will then be able to ask a further question after 21 days of your first question.

How to show that you no longer wish to join

If you no longer wish to join Girlguiding, you can update this using the 'Decided not to join?' option in the Quick Navigations box. Here you will be able to add a note as to why you no longer wish to join and update to delete your enquiry from the system.

You will get a pop-up asking you to confirm that you understand that you are deleting the enquiry from the waiting list.

If you have provided an email address you will also get an email confirming the change you have made.

A screenshot of a pop-up form. At the top, it says 'Please provide the reason *'. Below that is a large text input area with a cursor. At the bottom right, there are two buttons: a green 'Update' button and a red 'Cancel' button.

If you wish to join Girlguiding in the future you will need to re-add your details to the system.
